

STUDYING THE ELECTION RESULTS

How well did you pay attention to the election results last week? Search for answers to the questions below in TFK, newspapers or the Election Connection at www.timeforkids.com.

1. Which Presidential candidate won in your state?

2. How many electoral votes did he win in your state? _____
3. Did Ralph Nader get more than 5% of the popular vote nationwide? _____
4. Which presidential candidate is believed to have won the popular vote?

5. List a historic first that Hillary Clinton accomplished by winning the New York Senate race. _____
6. In what month will the President-elect take the oath of office? _____
7. Who won the election for House of Representatives in your district?
_____ What party does he or she represent? _____
8. Did your state hold an election for Governor? _____ Who won that election, or who is the governor in your state? _____
9. What political party will hold a majority of seats in the House of Representatives?

BONUS What challenge should the next President take on first? On the back of this page, list three problems you think the new President will need to tackle.

DOUBLE BONUS Explain the difference between the electoral vote and popular vote.