AN APPLE POEM

Dear Family,

What a beautiful time of year! In many parts of the country, the leaves are changing colors, and fall fruits and vegetables are being harvested. In this week's issue of TIME For Kids, children learned about the colors of fall.

You can build upon what children have learned by talking more about colors, apples and how we can use all of our senses to appreciate the season. For example, we use all of our senses when we eat an apple. Share an apple with you child. Talk about how it looks, feels, smells, tastes and even how it sounds when you bite into it. Then help your child complete the poem below. When the poem is finished, cut it out and put it on your refrigerator to remind everyone that apples are a perfect snack to have this time of year!

Finish the poem. You can use the words in the box or words of your own.
