

Name Date

Inspiring Educators

 April 27, 2018

Use this week’s cover story to answer the questions. For each question, circle the letter next to the best answer.

Read for Details (RI.3.1; RI.4.1)1. Who met an inspiring teacher in the fourth grade?

- A. Anne Burrell
- B. Bill Gates
- C. Karlie Kloss
- D. John Urschel

Read for Details (RI.3.1; RI.4.1)2. Thanks to his teacher, Bill Gates developed an interest in

- A. science fiction.
- B. computers.
- C. libraries.
- D. business.

Make Inferences (RI.3.2; RI.4.2)3. Which word best describes Bill Gates’s teacher Mrs. Caffiere?

- A. encouraging
- B. unique
- C. confident
- D. tough

Identify Point of View (RI.3.6; RI.4.6)4. Erin Entrada Kelly would most likely agree that her creative writing class was

- A. too easy.
- B. challenging.
- C. silly.
- D. tiring.

Analyze Language (RI.3.4; RI.4.4)5. Erin Entrada Kelly writes that she felt “afraid but proud” to share her haiku with the class. Which detail shows that she was afraid?

- A. “pulp against my skin”
- B. “frantic beating of my heart”
- C. “handmade mask of paper and paste”
- D. all of the above

Define Words in Context (RI.3.4; RI.4.4)6. Erin Entrada Kelly’s favorite class in high school was creative writing. Why does she say this is a “cliché,” or predictable, detail?

- A. because she is a writer
- B. because she still makes paper mâché masks
- C. because she respects teachers
- D. because she writes the best haikus

