

Name Date

Reclaiming the Past

November 9, 2018

Use this week's issue of TIME for Kids (Edition 3–4) to answer the questions. For each question, circle the letter next to the best answer.

RI.3.1; RI.4.1

- 1. Many items on display at the Ethnological Museum in Germany came from Alaska. When were the items collected?
- A. in the 1780s
 - B. in the 1880s
 - C. in the 1890s
 - D. in the 1990s

RI.3.1; RI.4.1

- 2. The museum in Germany returned nine items to Alaska Natives. The items were stolen from
- A. a palace in Nigeria.
 - B. an art fair in New York.
 - C. a museum in Washington, D.C.
 - D. a gravesite in Alaska.

RI.3.1; RI.4.1

- 3. What is one item the museum has returned to Alaska Natives?
- A. a Hopi mask
 - B. a bronze sculpture
 - C. a wooden burial mask
 - D. a stone tablet

RI.3.4; RI.4.4

- 4. What does ancestor mean, in paragraph 4?
- A. a person from whom one is descended
 - B. a ruler of a country
 - C. a tribal leader
 - D. a close friend

RI.3.3; RI.4.3

- 5. How did explorers obtain American Indian objects?
- A. They bought them.
 - B. They traded for them.
 - C. They stole them.
 - D. all of the above

RI.3.1; RI.4.1

- 6. Under a 1990 U.S. law, tribes can reclaim items kept in museums in
- A. Iran.
 - B. the U.S.
 - C. Canada.
 - D. France.

RI.3.3; RI.4.3

- 7. Why couldn't the Hopi tribe stop the sale of Hopi masks in France?
- A. The U.S. government forbade the tribe from taking action.
 - B. The objects were fake.
 - C. It is not unlawful to sell such objects in France.
 - D. The objects were not stolen.

RI.3.8; RI.4.8

- 8. In paragraph 8, the author writes, "Change could be on the horizon." What type of evidence supports that statement?
- A. a quote from an expert
 - B. results of a study
 - C. statistics, or numbers
 - D. a personal story

RI.3.8; RI.4.8

- 9. Read John Johnson's quotes in the last section. He would likely agree that museums
- A. can be convinced to return artifacts.
 - B. won't return artifacts without a fight.
 - C. don't believe any artifacts were stolen.
 - D. will return all artifacts to their native lands at once.

RI.3.2; RI.4.2

- 10. This story is mainly about
- A. a Hopi tribe's attempt to stop a sale of artifacts in France.
 - B. a Native American exhibit at a museum in Germany.
 - C. why explorers stole from burial grounds in Alaska.
 - D. how some museums are returning artifacts to Native tribes.

Bonus Imagine it is your job to convince a museum curator to return stolen artifacts to a Native American tribe. What would you say to persuade him or her?